

Mr. Adams' Lecture.

Concert Hall was oppressively crowded, on Tuesday evening, and multitudes were unable to obtain admission at all. We tried to find standing room, but gave it up and retired very miserably.

The large attendance proved two things,—first and foremost, undoubtedly, the warm and prevailing interest that prevails in our community in relation to California, and the well-founded conviction that Mr. ADAMS' Lecture would gratify that interest, and, second, that Free Lectures are most pernicious things. We give timely notice that unless different regulations are adopted numbers will not try to hear the next Lecture. There were something less than a million of juvenile sovereigns, ranging from "two years old and under," who, as the spiteful Barry remarked, reminded us of "the injured memory of Herod," and who, instead of crowding out others, ought to have been handsomely spanked and in bed. They had no business there, and should have been kept out. But how could it be done? Now! Because nobody had a right, under the programme, to keep anybody out. In a "well-regulated community" this is absurd. The very object of the public Lecture is defeated by it. In a "free-gratis-for-nothing" crowd, "the boys" are always supreme. They are not there for information, nor for any serious thing, but "for fun." They keep out the fathers and mothers and wives and brothers who really wish, and who really ought, to hear. We like boys, but have a clear conviction that, in such places, homoeopathic doses are decidedly the best.

The gentlemen who control the arrangements for these Lectures of Mr. ADAMS, (and we hope, as we have before intimated that he will give us at least half-a-dozen of them) may as well give up the notion of having them free. They are too useful and interesting. We know Mr. ADAMS objects,—but what of that? Don't ask him! What does he know about it? It is a mighty pretty business, if the public can't pay, when they wish to. Let the price of admission be fixed as low as you please,—but let it be something, and put the receipts in the Savings Bank for the benefit of the Cherokee Mission, if you can't find anything else to do with it! Let us try to have something like order and regularity.

—All who were present on Tuesday evening, speak in high terms of the manner and matter of Mr. ADAMS' Lecture. We knew it would be good, and not only good but practically useful. We are glad to hear that he consents to give us another, on Tuesday Evening next, in the same place—Concert Hall. He possesses peculiarly excellent qualifications as a familiar Lecturer. He is self-possessed, quick in perception, sufficiently positive in opinion, sure of his facts, and sensible in his inferences. He has seen all the Elephants in California, and has a small menagerie of their d'guerreotypes. Don't let us permit him to impose upon us by attempting to give them to us for nothing!

—The New York Legislature assembled yesterday. The prevailing opinion is that Mr. Daniel S. Dickinson will not be elected to succeed Mr. Daniel S. Dickinson in the U. S. Senate. "Too much of a good thing, &c." We copy the following from the N. Y. Courier's telegraphic despatches:—

ABSENCE, Jan. 5.—There are about 50 Whigs canvassing in the ground. A great deal of canvassing is going on, and it is difficult to form any accurate judgment of the officers of the Assembly. Messrs. H. J. Raymond and J. B. Ransom will be the rival candidates for the Speakership. Mr. Raymond stands the best chance of being elected.

We hope Mr. RAYMOND will be elected.—Our New York friends will be safer with a Yankee Speaker.

—New Year's Day was a little colder than usual in Burlington, but was "warm and balmy," at least to a few, in the evening. Those of us who waited for horses and sleighs among the small hours, will remember how pleasantly the time passed.

"Oh, if I were the Queen of France,
Or, still better, Pope of Rome,
I'd have no fighting men abroad,
Nor weeping men at home!"

Or,
Oh, if I were the Queen of France,
Or, better, Pope of Rome,
I'd keep an ancient fiddler man,
So all the world could dance.

—It will be noticed from the flag flying from his head quarters, that our friend PARKER offers his excellent Daguerreotypes for nothing—unless people are foolish enough to consider 75 cents nothing, for such pictures!

—Messrs. E. SMITH & Co. have received the January Number of STRINGER & TOWNSEND'S admirable Monthly, the INTERNATIONAL. Its contents will be found in our advertising columns. They are rich and varied, as usual.

The Pine-tree Shilling.

The interesting reminiscence, by Hawthorne, entitled "The Pine-Tree Shilling," which we copied some days ago, has attracted the attention of our friend, Judge WATERMAN, of Lamoille County, who is a descendant of Capt. John Hall, the old Mini-master of Massachusetts, (who gave Mr. Sewall his daughter's weight in silver as a marriage portion), and he obligingly sends us the following communication. We are sure the Judge cannot object to our mentioning his name, though he only sends us his initials.—[Ed. F. P.]

To the Editor of the Free Press,
SIR.—Noticing an article in your paper of Jan. 3, headed "The Pine-tree Shilling," I believe what I have been early taught to consider a mistake, viz. that Mr. Sewall was the only daughter of Capt. John Hall. Family history shows that there was a younger daughter, whose name was Elizabeth, and who married a Mr. Allen, and received her portion of her father's treasure, not by weight, but by measurement—a full half bushel,—not however, wholly in coin, but partly in articles reserved from the crucible, such as Tankards, snuff-boxes, Tankards, &c. Mr. Allen, (John I think) subsequently resided in Norwich, Ct., having quite a large family. The old Lady, Mrs. Allen, becoming very aged, called together her numerous Grand-children on a Thanksgiving Day, and made to each a present of a Shilling piece, with other articles and Tankards, some of which are yet in existence. I have in my possession one of the Shillings, and one or two other small articles, which I prize highly, not of course, for their intrinsic value, but as a memorial of the lineage of our family.
T. W.
Johnson, Jan. 7, 1851.

American Art Union.

The Paintings drawn by the Burlington Subscribers to this useful and prosperous Union, have been received by the Honorary Secretary, JOHN H. PECK, Esq., and placed in Messrs. E. SMITH & Co.'s Bookstore, where they will remain for a few days. They are all superior works of Art. We shall take occasion to refer to them again.

WITHDRAWAL.—The Connecticut River Railroad Company have withdrawn their trains from the Ashuelot Railroad, which they have been running for a few weeks past, and now run only to South Vernon, where they connect with the trains of the Vermont and Mass. Railroad for Brattleboro', &c.

Harper's New Monthly.

Promptly with the 1st day of the month, Mr. SMITH has furnished us with the January number of Harper's New Monthly Magazine. It is filled with its customary complement of excellent and entertaining articles, besides portraits of Robert Southey, Madame Campan, Bonaparte, and De Quincy, the Quincey, the Opium-Eater. We copy the following spirited and beautiful verses:—

PROCRUSTINIAN.

IF Fortune with a smiling face
Strew roses on our way,
When shall we stop to pick them up?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those who were our own dear friends,
Kindly smile and forgive,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt
Are harmed unless we pay,
When shall we strive to be just?
To-day, my love, to-day,
Or dwell with bygone sorrows,
And ask of coming woes,
When shall we give, if grief we must?
To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

raised. After some observations from Mr. Root, committee rose. Mr. Potter then offered a resolution that the date on the postage should be in two hours, and that the House should then go into committee on it.—Adopted.

Mr. Sibley introduced a bill authorizing Oregon and Minnesota to take charge of their School lands. Adopted.

SENATE.—Mr. Bay presented the report of the Committee on the bill to fill the vacant term of the late Mr. Calhoun. Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

Mr. Bay presented a petition from the citizens of New Jersey, asking Congress to appropriate a sum of money equal to what has been contributed by individuals, for the completion of the Washington Monument.

NOTICE.

THE Semi Annual meeting of the Chittenden County Teachers Association will be held at the School House, on Thursday, Jan. 10, 1851. The Convention will be organized at 9 A. M. A punctual attendance of all the members is earnestly requested.
By Order of the Executive Committee.
Jan. 10, 1851.

Sand Bar Bridge.

THE NEXT ANNUAL MEETING OF THE Sand Bar Bridge Company will be held on Thursday the 16th of January next in the Lecture Room in South Hero, at 10 o'clock.
O. G. WHEELER,
Secretary.

TRAVELER HO!

THIS IS THE WAY! SAND BAR BRIDGE. THE public is hereby informed, that the Bridge between Milton and South Hero is completed and is ready for use of all travelers. Those from the East who desire to visit Grand Lake, may do so now without being dependent upon the stage or for, and those who wish to pass from Vermont to New York or vice versa, may do so by crossing the Sand Bar Bridge and the Plattsburgh and Island Ferry Boat.

which will continue its daily trips until absolutely prevented by ice.
By Order of the Directors.
O. G. WHEELER, Secy.

NOW OPENING

Nichols' Cash Store AND CARPET WAREHOUSE, No. 150 CHURCH STREET.

A LARGE addition to our present Stock of Goods.
DRY GOODS! of every kind, including Black and Fancy colored Dress Silk and Satin, all wool and Cotton and wool. French Merino, all kinds of French Merino, Linens of all kinds, Millinery, Dress Trimmings, Hosiery and Gloves, &c. &c. Black Silk Vests for coats and cloaks.

Groceries; LOOKING GLASSES, PAPER HANG LIFE GESE FEATHERS, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, SOLAR LAMPS, BUFFALO ROBES, &c. &c. &c.

The best assortment at low prices. Having just received an addition of 14 pieces to our large stock, we can now furnish anything from the best of New York or New England, at the lowest prices, and in the most complete manner. Also 24, 14, 54, 64, 74 and 84 inch Four piece Cloth, all widths.

Table Oil Cloth, all widths. Burlington, Dec. 9. d&wt

CO-PARTNERSHIP. THE SUBSCRIBERS HAVE BECOME PROPRIETORS OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ARTS AND MANUFACTURES, on the corner of College and Church streets, recently occupied by Sargent & Co. and now occupied by J. H. Chapman's system for drafting patterns.

November 10, 1850. D. FLETCHER, w2m3

DEPILATORY! FOR REMOVING SUPERFLUOUS HAIR, for sale by Dec. 25. d&wt

OD LIVER OIL! The nicest article in market—also, the Cod Liver Oil Candy for sale by Dec. 16. d&wt

FANCY GOODS. KRAMER & HEYER, No. 1 CORNHILL, BOSTON. IMPORTERS OF FINE FANCY GOODS, TOYS AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, of every description, all of which they will sell at small advance on the cost of importation.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS. FASHIONABLE TAILORING. Fine Clothing & Furnishing at the Burlington Clothing Warehouse, No. 100 West of the Free Press Office, on College Street.

A. F. WHEATON & Co. Are now receiving an unusually large and complete assortment of Fine Cloths, Fall and Winter Goods, and Fancy Goods, all of which they will sell at small advance on the cost of importation.

Ready Made Clothing. Manufactured by the best workmen, and from the newest styles of goods of the latest importations, which we offer at low prices.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. We have also on hand BOYS' and YOUTHS' CLOTHING, of every kind. Burlington, Sept. 9, 1850. d&wt

New Arrangements. HATS, &c., Manufactured in Burlington.

GEORGE R. WEED, HAVING JUST RETURNED FROM MARKET, is happy to announce to the public, that he has brought home a larger and finer assortment of articles in his line than ever before presented in this town; and in addition to this, he has met with extensive and complete arrangements for

MANUFACTURING. He has secured, for the purpose of the manufacture of his goods, a large and complete establishment, and he is now manufacturing a large quantity of goods, which he will sell at small advance on the cost of importation.

Some Remarkable Success. Martin, Mink, Down, and Jenny Lind. CUFFS! Down and Jenny Lind. LADIES' GLOVES of every variety.

Gentlemen's Caps! Mink, Down, and Jenny Lind. CUFFS! Down and Jenny Lind. LADIES' GLOVES of every variety.

UPHOLSTERY! This is the best of its kind for sale by Dec. 29. d&wt

James Dinnin's Estate.

STATE OF VERMONT. THE PROBATE COURT, DISTRICT OF CHITTENDEN. FOR THE DISTRICT OF VERMONT. In the matter of the Estate of James Dinnin, late of Burlington, in said District, deceased.

Whereas Enos Bin, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, has this day filed in said Court, a petition in writing, for a license to sell all the real estate belonging to said estate, together with the reversion of the widow's dower therein, at public sale of public auction, for the purpose of paying the debts and claims against said estate; and whereas said Court has assigned the 25th day of January, A. D. 1851, at the Probate Office, in said Burlington, for hearing and deciding in the premises, and ordered by publishing the time and place assigned as above said, and this order, three times successively in the Burlington Free Press, a newspaper published at Burlington, in the last of which publications the petition to the day fixed for hearing:

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at the time and place assigned, and show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said application should not be granted.

Given under my hand in Burlington, in said district, this 6th day of January, A. D. 1851. BRADFORD RIXFORD, Register.

Philio Ray's Estate. STATE OF VERMONT. THE Hon. the Probate Court of Chittenden. In the matter of the Estate of Philio Ray, late of Hinesburgh, in said District, deceased.

Whereas the Administrator of the Estate of said deceased, has made application to this Court to extend the time limited for making payment of the debts and claims against said estate, from the 10th day of January, 1851, to the 1st day of January, 1852, being assigned for a hearing in the premises, at the Office of the Register of this Court, and it having been decided that the time should be extended, and the said Court has ordered by publishing the time and place assigned as above said, and this order, three times successively in the Burlington Free Press, a newspaper published at Burlington, in the last of which publications the petition to the day fixed for hearing:

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at the time and place assigned, and show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said application should not be granted.

Given under my hand in Burlington, this 19th day of December, A. D. 1850. BRADFORD RIXFORD, Register.

NOTICE. WINOOSKI FASHIONABLE Merchant Tailoring ESTABLISHMENT.

D. FLETCHER HAS JUST RETURNED from New York City, with the latest Fashions and Improvements in the Tailoring business, and is now opening a new and complete system for drafting patterns.

November 10, 1850. D. FLETCHER, w2m3

DEPILATORY! FOR REMOVING SUPERFLUOUS HAIR, for sale by Dec. 25. d&wt

OD LIVER OIL! The nicest article in market—also, the Cod Liver Oil Candy for sale by Dec. 16. d&wt

FANCY GOODS. KRAMER & HEYER, No. 1 CORNHILL, BOSTON. IMPORTERS OF FINE FANCY GOODS, TOYS AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, of every description, all of which they will sell at small advance on the cost of importation.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS. FASHIONABLE TAILORING. Fine Clothing & Furnishing at the Burlington Clothing Warehouse, No. 100 West of the Free Press Office, on College Street.

A. F. WHEATON & Co. Are now receiving an unusually large and complete assortment of Fine Cloths, Fall and Winter Goods, and Fancy Goods, all of which they will sell at small advance on the cost of importation.

Ready Made Clothing. Manufactured by the best workmen, and from the newest styles of goods of the latest importations, which we offer at low prices.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. We have also on hand BOYS' and YOUTHS' CLOTHING, of every kind. Burlington, Sept. 9, 1850. d&wt

New Arrangements. HATS, &c., Manufactured in Burlington.

GEORGE R. WEED, HAVING JUST RETURNED FROM MARKET, is happy to announce to the public, that he has brought home a larger and finer assortment of articles in his line than ever before presented in this town; and in addition to this, he has met with extensive and complete arrangements for

MANUFACTURING. He has secured, for the purpose of the manufacture of his goods, a large and complete establishment, and he is now manufacturing a large quantity of goods, which he will sell at small advance on the cost of importation.

Some Remarkable Success. Martin, Mink, Down, and Jenny Lind. CUFFS! Down and Jenny Lind. LADIES' GLOVES of every variety.

Gentlemen's Caps! Mink, Down, and Jenny Lind. CUFFS! Down and Jenny Lind. LADIES' GLOVES of every variety.

UPHOLSTERY! This is the best of its kind for sale by Dec. 29. d&wt

UPHOLSTERY! This is the best of its kind for sale by Dec. 29. d&wt

FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CONSUMPTIONS, And all Affections of the Lungs.

THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM, having been tested by the experience of thousands for the last twenty years, is recommended by the highest medical authorities, as superior to any other preparation.

From the Editor of the Burlington Sentinel, May 17, 1850:—"The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam prepared by REED & CUTLER of Boston, has become the most popular medicine ever put forth for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption. That it is worthy of its high reputation is made sufficiently evident by the numerous testimonials which are constantly received from the friends of the medicine. It is a most valuable preparation for the relief of the lungs, and is highly recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of blood, and coughs, and with universal success. I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities, and I have seen it recommended by the highest medical authorities."

"I have for some time past been in the habit of prescribing the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for consumption, asthma, pleurisy, spitting of